PENSION AND OTHER RETIREMENT BENEFITS

POLICY NOTE FOR 2014-2015

“குடிதழீஇக் கோலோச்சும் மாநில மன்னன்
அடிதழீஇ நிற்கும் உலகு.”

(குறள் 544)

Whose heart embraces subjects all, lord over mighty land
Who rules, the world his feet embracing stands. (Kural 544)

Following the above lines of Divine poet Thiruvalluvar, this Government under the able leadership of Hon'ble Chief Minister has taken various welfare schemes to Pensioners. The most important one is the implementation of the New Health Insurance Scheme, 2014 for Pensioners (including spouse) / Family Pensioners in line with Government Servants Health Insurance Scheme. Under this scheme, Pensioners (including spouse) / Family Pensioners can avail medical assistance upto ₹ 2.00 Lakhs for a block period of four years as against ₹ 1.00 lakh sanctioned for a life time under the Tamil Nadu Government Pensioners' Health Fund Scheme, 1995.

2. There are about 7,09,977 Pensioners and Family Pensioners in Tamil Nadu as on 31-12-2013. The Government have established the Directorate of Pension with effect from 1-9-1994 to redress the grievance of the Pensioners / Family Pensioners and with a view to ensure speedy settlement of pension / terminal benefits.

3. The details of Pensioners and Family Pensioners in the State are given below:

Sl. No.	Details	Drawing through		Total
		Treasuries	Public Sector Banks
1.	State Civil Pensioners	3,39,233	52,693	3,91,926
2.	Teacher Pensioners	67,653	14,002	81,655
3.	Civil Family Pensioners	1,59,347	10,798	1,70,145
4.	Teacher Family Pensioners	27,433	1,748	29,181
5.	Other category Pensioners	32,519	4,551	37,070
	Total	6,26,185	83,792	7,09,977

4. Major component of the expenditure under this demand relates to pension and pensionary benefits of Government employees and teaching and non-teaching staff in aided educational institutions. This demand also covers the activities of Directorate of Pension and the expenditure on pension and other benefits granted to freedom fighters and Ex-INA personnel.

5. Under this Demand in the Budget Estimate 2014-2015, a sum of ₹ 17,203.88 Crore has been provided for Pension and other retirement benefits, ₹ 310.00 Crore for Miscellaneous General Services and ₹ 28.85 Crore for Social Security and Welfare, totaling to ₹ 17,542.73 Crore.

6. PENSION.

- (i) A minimum qualifying service of 10 years is necessary to become eligible for Pension. The Government has reduced the qualifying service from 33 years to 30 years to become eligible for full Pension with effect from 1-7-1996. Further, Pension is being determined based on 50% of pay last drawn or 50% of average emoluments drawn during the last 10 months of service rendered whichever is higher.

- (ii) A pensioner is entitled for a minimum pension of ₹ 3,050/- per month with effect from 1-1-2006.

7. GRATUITY.

(i) Service Gratuity.

Service gratuity is admissible for those who have put in less than 10 years of qualifying service. It is calculated at the uniform rate of half a month's emoluments for every completed six monthly period of service. This is a one time lumpsum payment for the service rendered in addition to the retirement gratuity admissible.

(ii) Death Gratuity.

In the event of death in harness, death gratuity is admissible at the following rates:-

Sl. No.	Length of Service	Rate of Gratuity
1.	Less than one year	Two times monthly emoluments
2.	One year or more but less than five years	Six times of monthly emoluments
3.	Five years or more but less than twenty years	Twelve times of monthly emoluments
4.	Twenty years or more	Half of monthly emoluments for every completed six monthly period of qualifying service subject to a maximum of 33 times of monthly emoluments provided that the amount of Death Gratuity in no case exceeds ₹ 10 lakh with effect from 1-1-2006.

(iii) Retirement Gratuity.

One who has completed five years of qualifying service and above is granted retirement gratuity on his/her retirement at the rate of $1/4^{\text{th}}$ of emoluments for each completed six monthly period of qualifying service subject to a maximum of $16^{1/2}$ times of monthly emoluments. The maximum ceiling limit of retirement gratuity is ₹ 10 lakh with effect from 1-1-2006. In respect of employees retiring on or after 1-4-1998, gratuity is calculated based on pay and dearness allowance last drawn. With effect from 1-1-2006, basic pay includes grade pay also for this purpose.

8. FAMILY PENSION.

- (i) The family of a Government employee is eligible for family pension in the event of his/her death either in service or after retirement. In the case of death while in service, one year of continuous service in a pensionable post at any time during his/her service is required to become eligible for family pension. In cases of death while in service, the enhanced family pension is payable at the rate of 50% of the pay last drawn for a period of 7 years after death. After this the family pension is regulated at 30% of the pay last drawn. Family pension is also allowed to the family of Government employees who die in harness before completion of one year continuous service provided that the deceased Government servant concerned immediately prior to his/her appointment to the service or post was examined by a medical authority and declared fit for Government service. In the case of death after retirement, one should be a pensioner at the time of death for the family to become eligible for family pension.

- (ii) Family pension is payable to the widow/widower till her/his remarriage or death whichever is earlier. After her / his death, it is payable to the children upto the age of 25 years or till their marriage whichever is earlier. However, if the son / unmarried daughter is suffering from any disorder or disability of mind or physically crippled or disabled so as to render him/her unable to earn a livelihood the family pension shall be payable to such son/daughter for his/her life time even after attaining the age of 25 years. The Government has also issued orders for the payment of life time family pension of ₹ 3,050/- along with Medical Allowance to the unmarried / divorced / widowed daughters of pensioners of this State with effect from 28-11-2011 subject to fulfilment of certain conditions.

- (iii)The minimum family pension payable is ₹ 3,050/- per month with effect from 1-1-2006.

9. EX-GRATIA PAYMENT.

Government has issued orders enhancing ex-gratia payment from ₹ 605/- per month to ₹ 645/- per month with Dearness Allowance @ 175% with effect from 1st July 2013 to the families of deceased Contributory Provident Fund / Non-Pensionable Establishment beneficiaries of State Government and the employees of former District Board who had retired / died in harness prior to 1st January 1986 and who are not eligible for family pension.

10. COMMUTATION OF PENSION.

Pensioners are eligible to commute a portion of pension upto $33\frac{1}{3}\%$ of pension and receive a lumpsum payment. This commutation of pension is authorised by the Accountant-General without medical examination if they apply for the same within one year from the date of issue of Pension Payment Order. This concession has been extended in the case of voluntary retirement also. The Government has also allowed restoration of the commuted portion of pension after 15 years from the date of retirement in cases where commutation of pension is simultaneous with retirement or 15 years from the date of commutation where commutation of pension is done in the second or subsequent months of retirement.

Website for instant use. This department may be contacted through e.mail also. The e-mail address of this Directorate is dop@tn.nic.in.

COMPUTERISATION OF PENSION DIRECTORATE.

27. As per programme developed by National Informatics Centre, the Health Fund Scheme and Family Security Fund Scheme have been fully computerised by which necessary input data is fed, processed and output is generated in the form of sanction proceedings. Similarly, the Employees Provident Fund Scheme has also been computerised with slight modification by National Informatics Centre. For introduction of ECS to credit their payments under the above said Pensioners' Welfare Schemes through Reserve Bank of India in their respective Bank Accounts, the process for ECS payment is being carried out with the assistance of National Informatics Centre, Pension Pay Office, Treasuries and Bank Officials by which payment through Cheque will be dispensed to ensure immediate credit of payments to the Pensioners.

e-PENSION.

28. A web-enabled software to process the pension payment and to have a Centralized Database of the pensioners has been initially implemented in seven districts and Pension Pay Office, Chennai on pilot basis and it will be rolled out in all the districts in a phased manner during the financial year 2014-2015. Further, migration of pension related information from Accountant General's database into e-pension Central Server will also be done to ensure data accuracy and saving of time and resources.

MUSTERING OF PENSIONERS.

29. Considering the difficulties of the senior citizens, this department is taking initiatives to simplify the annual mustering process by incorporating the provision of biometric identification through Finger Print

Reader with the help of NIC. By making such facilities available at the banks in future, the Pensioners will get an opportunity to exercise online authentication from the nearby banks itself, which enables biometric identification.

30. Apart from this, the upcoming Integrated Finance and Human Resource Management System will also help in creating hassle free and user-friendly environment for the Pensioners to receive all the required services from the Government.

DIGITALIZATION OF PENSION RECORDS.

31. It is being proposed to digitalize the Pension Payment Orders of the Pensioners attached to the Pension Pay Office, Chennai and to link it with the web enabled e-pension software on pilot basis in order to reap the benefits of digitalization. Secured and sustainable storage, easy and multiple access beyond boundaries, retrieval of information by all end users including the pensioners and enhanced quality of records such as legibility, avoidance of discoloration etc., are the expected key benefits of digitalization.
