MINORITIES WELFARE

POLICY NOTE - 2022-2023

INTRODUCTION

The State of Tamil Nadu is the pioneer in the country in protecting the legal rights of the minority communities and ensuring their share in education, employment and economic benefits. This Government is committed to maintain communal harmony among various sections of the society.

To converge attention on the socio, economic advancement of the minority communities, to implement the Prime Minister's New 15 Point Programme and to give effect to the justice Rajindar Sachar committee, a separate Directorate of Minorities welfare has been formed in the year 2007.

This Government in 1989 set up the State Minorities Commission to safeguard the interest and the rights of religious and linguistic minorities. This Government in 1999, established Tamil Nadu Minorities Economic Development Corporation in order to improve their economic status.

Schemes such as, sanction of Government of India scholarships to minorities students, running of hostels, providing various welfare assistance to the members of Ulema and Employees Welfare Board, establishing Muslim and Christian Women Aid Societies and providing financial assistance to them, Financial assistance to Christians for Jerusalem pilgrimage and Muslims for Haj Pilgrimage and sanction of pension to Pesh Imam, Mothinars, Arabic teachers and Mujawars who have served and retired from Tamil Nadu Waqf institutions are implemented by this Department.

In 2015, United Nations General Assembly spelt out Sustainable Development Goals. Of these, Goal -1 (No Poverty), Goal 4-(Quality Education) and Goal-10 (Reduce inequalities) are directly related to this department. This department will continue to work in a focused manner to achieve these Sustainable Development Goals.

2. SEPARATE RESERVATION FOR BACKWARD CLASS MUSLIMS

The Government considering the representations of minority communities to provide for separate representation, enacted the law providing 3.5% reservation to Backward Class Muslims out of the 30% reservation earmarked for Backward Classes in the year 2007 after receiving recommendations from Tamil Nadu Backward Classes Commission. The Government has ordered to follow the carry forward procedure in filling up of posts earmarked for Backward Class Muslims in direct recruitments.

3. SCHOLARSHIPS

"தொட்டனைத்து ஊறும் மணற்கேணி மாந்தர்க்குக் கற்றனைத்து ஊறும் அறிவு" - குறள் 396

*"In sandy soil, when deep you delve, you reach the springs below;
The more you learn, the freer streams of wisdom flow"*

Government continues to give importance to education by effectively implementing the scholarship schemes of Government of India to enable the minority community students belonging to Christian, Muslim, Sikh, Buddhist, Parsi and Jain religions to continue their education without interruption. The following scholarship schemes are implemented for Minority students studying from 1st std to Professional / Research level courses in Government / Government aided and Government recognized private educational institutions.
